D. PLEASE INITIAL EACH ONE

I will check my price list. My business is responsible for every price our customers see and every quote we give (section 6).

The 3D pictures and floor plans are not construction drawings, engineered plans or permit documents (section 6.3).

Rent-to-own figures are estimates. Barnwright is not a lender, and our rent-to-own contracts are our responsibility (section 6.4).

My business is responsible for texting and emailing customers lawfully, with their permission (section 7).

If a fee isn't paid, or the software can't check in for 7 days, changes stop and our 3D designer links close until it is fixed. We can still look at and download everything (section 9).
